

Event Liability Release

By signing this event liability release ("Release"), I hereby agree and acknowledge that I have made the voluntary and informed decision to participate in the event entitled Neighborhood to be conducted on June 1 to August 30th 2025 on in San Francisco California and funded by The Hack Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit (EIN: 81-2908499) corporation serving as a fiscal sponsor for events hosted by students, such as the Team (the "Nonprofit"). The Team and the Nonprofit shall be collectively referred to as "Hack Club" for purposes of this Release.

I understand that this is the freedom waiver which intends for my student to have the autonomy to participate in the Neighborhood program in San Francisco but also explore independently beyond the hours of building projects with friends.

In consideration for my ability to participate in the Event, I agree to the contractual representations and agreements made herein. Further, I understand and agree that I am not required to participate in the Event, and that my agreement to do so and to execute this Release has been made in my sole and unfettered discretion and not under duress or any undue influence from any individual, entity or organization.

Neighborhood is an unsupervised program. Day to day students need to be mature and independent enough to prepare their own meals, transport themselves from place to place (including from airport to their apartment), and do all things necessary to live on their own. Hack Club and organizers assume zero liability or responsibility for students participating in this program staying at the Neighborhood houses.

I am aware that the activities associated with the Event, including but not limited to the travel to and from the Event, may be hazardous to my health or well-being and that I could be seriously injured or killed; however, I acknowledge that by signing this release, I, for myself and for my heirs, next of kin, executors, administrators, legal representatives, assignees and successors in interest, am assuming the risks associated with participation in the Event and that I am releasing Hack Club, and the officers, employees, attorneys, agents and volunteers of each of them from any and all liability for damage to or loss of my personal property, sickness or injury from any source, or death which might occur while participating in the Event.
